

BULLETIN OF KEISEN INSTITUTE OF HORTICULTURE
VOLUME 4
CONTENTS

Akio Niizuma: Exploring into the World of English Gardening Magazines in the 19th Century.

Rihito Kimura: The "Natural-ness" of Life and the "Healing-ness" of Life — Strategies for Biotechnological Development and Bioethics Public Policy —

Kazuko Nomura: Genealogy of Rosa

Satoo & Yuriko Nukui: Some Experiments on Germination of Pansies (Viola tricolor) at Home

Yoko Morimura: Why is a Large Amount of Vitamin C Produced in Plants?

Masaki Yamazaki: Promotion on the Export of Horticulture Crops in Bangladesh

Youji Iwamoto: Tradition, Creation and Revival, the English Gardening 1991-2006

Masako Tsuchiya: Gertrude Jekyll's Color Schemes at Munsted Wood

Akio Niizuma: A Report on "Canang", the Offering Flowers of the Bali-Hindu Culture.

Goro Nishimura: Keisen Cultural History of Flowers ; Euphorbia.

Satoshi Fujita: Keisen Cultural History of Vegetables ; Solanum melongena

Mikio Kobayashi: Keisen Cultural History of Fruit Trees ; Citrus kinokuni

Yasuyuki Miyauchi: Keisen Cultural History of Trees and Shrubs ; Acer

Reports of Research done with Subsidy from KIH (Project Research).

Yoko Morimura: The Formation of the Community based on Volunteer Activities With Horticulture in University Hospital.

Yoshio Katakura, Sanae Sawanobori, Hisao Tanimoto: Study on Organic Agrofarming making use of Coffee Cherry Waste.

Akio Niizuma: Studies of Gardening Magazines: Popularization of the Gardening Culture in England during the 19th Century.

Reports of Research done with Subsidy from KIH (General Research).

Yoko Honda: The History of the Flower Decoration of Keisen II .

Annual Report in 2006.

Annual Report of Public Lectures in 2006.

Schedule of Public Lectures in 2007 spring.

Contribution rules to this Bulletin.

Editorial Comments.