

BULLETIN OF KEISEN INSTITUTE OF HORTICULTURE

VOLUME 1

CONTENTS

Mayako Ishii : A Foreword—Aiming at the Inheritance and Development of Horticulture in Keisen.

Kunio Oguchi : A Record of Information about English Gardens.

Akio Niizuma : A Social History of Glasshouse in England.

Naotoshi Hakoda : Camellias and Postage Stamps in Vietnam.

Goro Nishimura : Keisen Cultural History of Flowers : Phalaenopsis.

Satoshi Fujita : Keisen Cultural History of Vegetables : Radishes.

Mikio Kobayashi : Keisen Cultural History of Fruit Trees : Blueberry.

Yasuyuki Miyauchi : Keisen Cultural History of Trees and Shrubs : Hydrangea.

Reports of Research done with Subsidies from Keisen Institute of Horticulture.

Goro Nishimura and Mutsuro Murakami : Studies on Plant Materials for the Perennial Flower Border in Japan.

Yoko Morimura : Specific Role of Horticulture in Volunteer Activities.

Mikio Kobayashi : Studies on the Characteristics of Small Fruit Trees as Genetic Resources.

Satoshi Fujita : Studies on the Local Varieties of Vegetables and Rural Life.

Akio Niizuma : A Preliminary Report on the Modernization of Botanical Sciences and the Enclosure of Woman with Green Thumbs.

Masaaki Ohashi : Plants and Peoples: On the Caste involved with Horticulture in South Asia.

Opening Ceremony of Keisen Institute of Horticulture and Memorial Public Lecture.

Annual Report in 2003.

Annual Report of Public Lectures in 2003.

Schedule of Public Lectures in 2004.

Materials : The Prospectus and the Regulation of Keisen Institute of Horticulture.

Editorial Comments.